

Vinson Says Navy Air Arm Slashed In Half

Pentagon Is Cutting Navy To A Convoy

Washington, Oct. 8.—(AP)—The navy's air arm is being slashed in half on Pentagon orders, and the whole navy reportedly is slated to wind up on mere convoy duty, Chairman Vinson (D-Ga.) of the house armed services committee charged today.

Congress itself apparently intends to let naval aviation "with the vine" for lack of aircraft, spurred on by advice of unsympathetic defense officials, Vinson said.

Secretary of the Navy Matthews said the navy feels the nation's security is endangered, and that he is fighting defense department proposals to cut the navy.

Says 'Banshee' Superior

And a Navy air expert said the navy's jet "Banshee" fighter plane can knock down the Air Force's prize B-36 atomic bomber any time, day or night.

"Three Banshees should positively insure the destruction of the B-36," said Capt. Fred M. Trappnell, commanding officer of the Naval Air test center at Patuxent River, Md.

This came out at another stormy hearing of the armed services committee, which is looking into the Pentagon's row over war strategy.

Before the hearing concluded, volleys had been fired in all directions, hitting Secretary of Defense Johnson and congress itself.

Trappnell, in his high appraisal of the Banshee, was giving an expert's backing to yesterday's testimony by flying Adm. A. W. Radford, Pacific fleet commander.

Radford said the Air Force's decision to back the B-36 to the limit was "a billion dollar blunder."

Trappnell once more called for a duel between the big bomber and the navy's jet fighter.

Chills For Duel

"It is impossible," he said, "to reconcile the publicity in favor of the B-36 with the reluctance to engage in joint comparative tests with the Navy."

The nub of the argument is this: Should the Air Force or the Navy, or both, deliver the bombs in any future war?

The Navy feels it should have an important role, with carriers and fighter planes.

On the other hand, said Vinson, it would appear that "defense leaders in the Pentagon and the other services are out of sympathy with the Navy air arm."

Said Vinson:

"I have seen a reputable document indicating that decisions have been reached in the (defense) department to cut naval and marine aviation strength about in half and that the Air Force is to be given an expanded role."

Rep. Carl Vinson (left, D., Ga.), chairman of the House Armed Services committee, and Admiral Arthur W. Radford (right), Pacific fleet commander, at a hearing concerning the morale of the navy. Radford testified that the B-36 is "a bad gamble with national security." Vinson said Saturday that the air arm of the navy had been halved.

Argentina Drives For Atomic Pact

Lake Success, Oct. 8.—(AP)—Argentina was reported today spearheading a campaign in the United Nations assembly for an immediate atomic armistice between the United States and the Soviet Union.

One diplomat at the U.N. assembly said Argentina and several other small or medium-sized powers wanted the general assembly to call for an armistice to run for a period of years.

This plan is expected to come before the U.N. in the 59-nation political committee early next week.

Problems Of City Money Will Hold Spotlight At Meet

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 8.—(AP)—Discussion of city money problems will hold top attention at the Illinois Municipal League's 36th annual convention opening here Monday.

About 700 mayors and municipal officials are expected for the sessions lasting through Wednesday.

Governor Stevenson will address a final night banquet when new officers will be named.

No solution for the financial headaches confronting many cities was forthcoming from the 1949 Illinois legislature.

The assembly scrapped the governor's $34,000,000 plan for per capita grants from the state treasury. It also defeated a proposal to add to municipal revenues by broadening local licensing powers.

However, the legislature enacted a tuberculosis aid program that will funnel $6,000,000 in state funds into city and county coffers during the next two years.

Pardon Board Will Consider Clemency Applications Of 24

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 8.—(AP)—The state pardon board will consider executive clemency applications of 24 persons convicted of murder at its October meeting next Tuesday.

Twelve of the clemency petitions were filed by prisoners sentenced for murder from downstate counties.

These petitioners were Harold Nail, Richard O'Neil, Melvin Watson and Charles Winchester, all of St. Clair county; Sarkis Yspalmian, Madison county; Arnel Walker, Sangamon county; Russell Robert Williams, Winnebago county; Samuel Tobe Holt, Vermilion county; Dan L. Swinford, Henderson county; Essie Malinsky, Clay county; Vivian Gladys Jones, Hardin county; and Kenneth Wilderman, Clinton county.

Applicants convicted in Cook county included Jesse Troutman, Roosevelt Adams, Lawrence Dawson, es. Both big parties are pledged to continue the people's-socialist coalition, Thomas Hilton, Hampton county; James Joseph Lamar, Ernest Martin, Orce Robinson, Dorothy Stewart, and Coy Thompson.

Greatest producer of dehydrated alfalfa feed for livestock is the state of Nebraska.

Many Hunters Marooned; One Death Reported

Boise, Idaho, Oct. 8.—(AP)—An early-season storm spread snow a foot deep across much of Idaho today. It temporarily marooned hundreds of deer hunters and caused the death of a North Idaho woman.

After a several hours break in the storm this morning, snow began falling again. Officials emphasized, however, that only temporary closing of most forest roads resulted and isolated hunters generally were in no danger.

Searchers Find Body

Deputy Sheriff Cliff Johnson at Coeur d'Alene said in a radio message received from a searching party told of the finding of the body of Mrs. Louis Schreengost, 27, of Rose Lake, Idaho.

She had been missing from her hunting camp in Kootenai county. Below freezing temperatures were recorded in the area the past two nights.

In Southern Idaho's Minidoka national forest, crews cleared roads to free hundreds of stalled automobiles. Many roads were drifted shut again tonight, however, and officials said a number of stranded cars remained in the area. They expressed belief, however, that occupants would be able to reach ranch houses to find refuge.

The storm didn't discourage other hunters from trying to enter the area. Game officials said they were stopping motorists from entering the danger area. Hundreds of hunters, sought deer at the lower elevations.

No Hunters Die

No deaths and only one serious case of frostbite resulted from the trapping of thousands of hunters in the Minidoka forest. Snow ceased falling during the night, but threatened to resume.

"People who stayed with their camps or in their cars are all right," said Forest Supervisor A. E. Briggs. "The ones who got into trouble were those who tried to walk out of the area."

National Guard trucks moved into the area late yesterday. Briggs said they picked up "scores and scores" of hunters tramping along the isolated roads.

Austria To Elect New Government; First In 7 Years

Vienna, Austria, Oct. 8.—(AP)—Austrians elect a new government tomorrow which they hope is destined to steer the country into full independence after seven years of Nazi occupation.

The right-wing people's party is expected to maintain its narrow advantage in the 165-seat parliament. However, even if the almost equally strong Socialist party should upset expectations and win a majority, there will be no major policy change.

Both big parties are pledged to continue the people's-socialist coalition, which has been in power since the 1945 election just after the war.

The Communists, who polled only five per cent of the vote in 1945 and elected only four members of parliament, may do even worse tomorrow. They may not return a single candidate to parliament.

Telephone Class On Dentistry Will Begin On Monday

Chicago, Oct. 8.—(AP)—A dental specialist will step up on telephone Monday night and address his "classroom" of 7,000 dentists listening in from 39 states.

It will mark the start of a nationwide postgraduate course in dentistry conducted by the University of Illinois via long distance telephone.

The real beauty of the program, its sponsors say, is that the six months course—one two hour call each month—will cost the students a total of only $10 each and permit them to remain in their home cities.

The extension program will operate this way:

Each month a panel of six dental specialists will be on hand for the instruction. The telephone company will complete the connection from Chicago to the 142 dental societies planning to receive the course. The telephone presentation then will be "banned" over loud speakers to the groups gathered in hotels or other meeting places in the distant cities.

The plan has been used successfully on a smaller scale for two years.

It was the brainchild of Dr. Saul Levy of Scranton, Pa., dentist and alumnus of the University of Illinois College of Dentistry.

Bank Robber Fails In Attempt To Escape Jail

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 8.—(AP)—Earl Bircham, accused cop slayer and bank robber, flashed two guns made of soap in a spectacular but unsuccessful effort to escape from the Jefferson county jail today.

John Clifford, a guard, floored the 42-year-old former Tennessee in a cellblock corridor. Bircham had sawed his way out of his jail cell undetected a short time before.

Clifford said he first saw Bircham approaching him in the cellblock corridor. The prisoner pulled two "guns" made of soap and demanded the jail keys, Clifford said. Bircham then switched off a corridor light.

"Now gimme those keys or I'll blow you guts out," the guard quoted Bircham.

"You'll have to come and get 'em," Clifford said he replied.

The guard said he noticed a phony appearance about the guns and decided they were not the real thing. Clifford said he lunged at Bircham, the two grappled a few moments and then he knocked the prisoner to the floor.

10-Inch Rainfall Floods Homes In Houston, Texas

Houston, Tex., Oct. 8.—(AP)—Rain-gorged bayous marooned hundreds of persons in suburban areas but threat of a major flood in this large Texas city eased late today.

A 10-inch rain flooded hundreds of homes, caused one death and played havoc with traffic. Several hundred residents were evacuated when water swept into homes in the southwest and northwest sections. It stood five feet deep in some sections.

The crest, however, had passed in the bayous, the weather bureau said. They were receding slightly.

Weatherman E. A. Farrell said showers predicted for tonight and tomorrow will bring no complications.

A U. S. Geological Survey report said Bray's bayou, which runs through some of fashionable south-side Houston, reached a 51.5 foot crest this afternoon and began to recede at a rate of about one one-hundredth of a foot per hour.

The storm fatality was Tony Lock, 43, Sheffield Steel employee, drowned as he was swept into the flooding San Jacinto river 15 miles northeast last night.

AFL Tickets 13 Solons For Defeat In 1950 Elections

St. Paul, Minn., Oct. 8.—(AP)—AFL political leaders today ticketed four southern Democratic members of the Senate, plus nine Republicans, for defeat in the 1950 elections.

These leaders have completed a list of senators they will support or oppose in an ambitious political drive to secure a more friendly Congress.

The big labor organization, which claims 8,000,000 members, wants to be sure the Taft-Hartley law is repealed and other desired legislative proposals are cleared through Congress.

The four Democrats whose names are listed for AFL opposition at the polls are Senators Fulbright of Arkansas, Tydings of Maryland, George of Georgia and Hoey of North Carolina.

Top officials of the AFL's political arm—Labor's League for political education—said they feel these four Democrats have voted too often against measures sponsored by the Truman administration and wanted by labor.

Proves Gas Can Be Made From Coal Via Electricity

Hume, Ohio, Oct. 8.—(AP)—The University of Missouri School of Mines and Metallurgy is proving daily here that coal can be turned to gas by sending an electric current through it.

In the textbooks, it's called "electrocarburization," and in the future, say the researchers, it will be possible to heat your home and cook your meals by utilizing coal that is still underground.

The school of mines is operating the experiment near here in conjunction with the Sinclair Oil company on that company's Tiger mine property.

The major objective of the experimental work here is to determine just how electrocarburization can be carried on commercially at a profit.

Eastern, Western Germans Sign Big Trade Agreement

Frankfurt, Germany, Oct. 8.—(AP)—Eastern and western Germans signed today a 600,000,000 west mark ($138,000,000) trade deal cutting across the political lines drawn by their rival governments.

Bookkeepers will handle the problems created by the fact eastern and western Germany have different currencies. The west mark, cut recently from 30 to 23 cents, is highly regarded. The east mark is worth about a sixth of the west mark.

The barter agreement was signed by representatives of German economic bodies created before the establishment of the western and eastern German republics, the former governed by conservatives and the latter by communists.

SENATOR DIES
Washington, Oct. 8.—(AP)—Senator Bert Henry Miller (D-Idaho) died at his home here today of heart disease. The 70-year-old former Idaho supreme court justice had been in poor health for some time.

Convict Ends Sentence But Stays On As Guest

Joliet, Ill., Oct. 8.—(AP)—A sick old convict whose sentence ends at midnight tonight will remain at Joliet penitentiary as a "guest of the state" because he is homeless, friendless and dying.

Alex Rhode, 73, has spent most of the last 42 years in various prisons. Currently, he has been serving a 10-year sentence for larceny. He had saved up $600 and was looking forward eagerly to his release tonight.

But for the last 90 days Rhode has been in the prison hospital, complaining of stomach pains and nausea.

Today Warden Joseph E. Ragen told him he could stay on "not as a prisoner, but free to come and go if the doctor says you're able."

Rhode replied, "I'm slipping every day I'm here. I have some money. Can't I get into an outside hospital?"

Ragen told him all the hospitals he had queried were full.

Then Dr. Frank J. Chmelik, prison physician, interrupted.

"If we put you out on the street at midnight, where would you go?" Rhode: "I'd sooner get out and take my chances."

Ragen: "Who's going to pick you up when we put you out?" Rhode: "The bus."

Dr. Chmelik: "Where would you go?" Rhode: "I don't know—I might stay on the bus until I got to California."

Dr. Chmelik: "We haven't told you this before, Alex, but you have an inoperable cancer of the stomach. You have to have regular blood counts and transfusions. You could never stand the trip."

Rhode paled, then accepted a pack of cigarettes from an inmate-nurse. "The outside world is a cold place," Dr. Chmelik said, "and no one would care for you there. Here these inmate nurses will treat you like their own father."

"That's right, dad," the nurse grinned.

Rhode took a long look out the window.

"I guess I'd better stay," he sighed.

Defenses North Of Canton Broken

Red Army Chases Fleeing National Troops On Front

Canton, China, Oct. 8.—(AP)—Defenses north of Canton were melting away today before the communist advance, but the Reds appeared to be concentrating on pursuit of the nationalist army rather than quick capture of this capital.

Practically the whole 190-mile stretch of the Canton railway from Hengyang to Yingtak, only 75 miles north of this doomed city, was either in Red hands or had been abandoned.

Gen. Pai Chung-hsi, whose 200,000-man defense force is the best nationalist army left on the mainland, was continuing his rapid withdrawal. He was moving southwest from Hengyang toward his native Kwangsi province, rather than south towards Canton.

Nationalist press reports said Pai had decided to shift his headquarters to Kweilin, capital of Kwangsi. This is 200 miles southwest of Hengyang, which was his headquarters only two days ago.

Pai's troops were said to have fought a holding action on his western flank to permit a smooth withdrawal.

Most nationalist opinion was that Lin Piao, Red general confronting Pai, would continue the pursuit, leaving a slower frontal drive on Canton to communist forces of Gen. Chen Keng.

Stratojet Bomber Gets New Engines

Moses Lake, Wash., Oct. 8.—(AP)—The Boeing XB-47 stratojet bomber, which can attain a speed of at least 600 miles an hour, made its first flight today with a new set of more powerful engines.

The Air Force said the six new general electric J-47 turbo-jet engines give the plane 25 per cent more power than those used when it made a record three-hour, 46-minute transcontinental flight last January.

Crop Reports May Drive Government To Levy Controls

Washington, Oct. 8.—(AP)—Harvest-time crop reports due next week may go far in driving the government toward the broadest farm production control action ever taken.

Mounting agricultural surpluses—in which Uncle Sam may have invested upwards of $4,500,000,000 in 1950 harvest—are causing government officials to search for ways of pinching back the production spigot opened wide by war and post-war demands.

As market prospects look now, it appears the agriculture department will seek to curb output of such crops as cotton, wheat, corn, tobacco, peanuts, flaxseed, potatoes, rice, oats, and possibly soybeans.

Furthermore, there may be some reduction in government financial incentives to produce hogs, eggs and poultry and such dairy products as butter and cheese.

The department already has slapped acreage allotments on next year's wheat crop trying to cut production. Only those who plant within their allotted acreage will be eligible for price support aid.

Reports Czechs Sending Captives Into Forced Labor

Prague, Czechoslovakia, Oct. 8.—(AP)—Czechoslovakia is sending to its uranium and coal mines and forced labor camps the thousands snatched up in a week-long police roundup, reliable reports said tonight.

Flying squads of security police still roamed the streets of this fearful capital and their activity was expected to continue.

Businessmen and property holders seemed to be the main targets. But almost anyone suspected of harboring sympathies with the west or Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia appeared in danger.

There were warnings, too, that too-overt sympathizers with the Roman Catholic church hierarchy may be arrested.

Virtually everyone was talking of the purge in whispers.

There had been no direct official announcement of it, but the security police radio emphasized:

"Everybody who approves of the exploitation of the working classes in the west, who approves of the colonial wars and sympathizes with Tito's treason is committing a crime and the hard hand of the working class must fall upon him."

Steel Outlook Dark As 2nd Week Begins

Pittsburgh, Oct. 8.—(AP)—Uncle Sam today got John L. Lewis and coal operators to go back to the bargaining table and try again for a settlement of the 20-day old mine strike.

But there was only gloom on the steel strike front as the economy crippling shutdown of America's basic industry headed into its second week. Nothing is being done about peace.

The first doubleheader steel-coal strike in the nation's history has idled nearly a million workers with prospects the jobs list will rise quickly unless a break comes. Losses in wages and industry are estimated above $250,000,000.

Industry Hit Hard

Allied industries are being hit harder and only today a small steel concern boosted prices after meeting strike pension demands of the CIO United Steelworkers. Pittsburgh District merchants told coal and steel strikers to let up on credit purchases.

United Mine Workers Chief Lewis and representatives of three operators groups will sit down in West Virginia next Wednesday in an effort to unsnarl their contract impasse.

They reached an agreement on the time and place in Washington where U.S. Mediation Chief Cyrus Ching told them to get together and end the UMW strike because a crisis is approaching.

Lewis will meet with southern operators in Charleston, and northern, western and steel company representatives in White Sulphur Springs.

"I guess we're on dead-center until next Wednesday," said one operator spokesman.

Lewis In Washington

Lewis was in his Washington office catching up with business after a long absence in Illinois where his mother is ill. But he had nothing to say about resumption of negotiations or Ching's prods on speeding up a settlement.

Generally there was peace in the bituminous coal fields east of the Mississippi where 380,000 diggers are striking in Lewis' fight for a new contract.

Non-union mines continue to produce fuel with little of the violence that marked their return to operation in defiance of Lewis' strikers.

Last night, however, the non-union Green River Coal company at Providence, Ky., was rocked by a heavy dynamite explosion that jarred the adjacent countryside.

The blast, causing damage estimated at $40,000 to $50,000, occurred an hour or so later a small night crew had left the operation. There was no immediate clue as to who set off the charge.

Unnerved Mother Slashes 2 Small Sons To Death

Kalamazoo, Mich., Oct. 8.—(AP)—A hysterical young mother slashed her two small sons to death early today in her new home. She said their crying "drove her crazy."

Wielding a razor-sharp celery harvesting knife, she left blood spattered through the neat little bungalow which was still full of uncrated furniture.

The mother, Mrs. Robinette Freeman, 27, was found by her husband, William, 28 who had been at work all night. He said he had to fight with her to get the knife away.

Freeman told Undersheriff B. K. MacGregor he found his wife in the bathroom, sitting on the edge of the tub. The body of his nine-month-old son, Larry, was floating in the water-filled tub.

In a nearby bedroom was the butchered body of their other child six-year-old John Carroll.

Coroner Ralph C. Cook said the boys had been dead for some time—probably since midnight last night.

Mrs. Freeman was taken to the state hospital here for observation after questioning by sheriff's officers.

DOING THEIR BIT

Two young Welshmen sailed for home recently after an 8600-mile tour of America that cost them only $14.50. They hitchhiked accepted gifts of food, slept in jails on occasion, and appeared on radio quiz programs at strategic moments. "We lived like kings after we won quiz contests in Los Angeles and Chicago," said one. Certainly Sir Stafford Cripps, Britain's financial chief, will have to give these two an appreciative pat for their personal efforts at easing the drain on the British dollar supply.

SUPREME COURT SHOULD CONTAIN DIFFERENT SOCIAL PHILOSOPHIES

Where does the Supreme Court belong in relation to the racing currents of political, economic and social affairs? Under the U. S. Constitution, the judiciary is an independent arm of the government, co-equal in authority with the Congress and the presidency. Like those other two branches, it is part of a system of "checks and balances" designed to prevent the arbitrary, unwise use of political power. Historically, the Supreme Court as the top judicial agency in America came to exercise its check on the legislative and executive authority by passing upon the constitutionality of measures enacted into law. It does not do this as a matter of course, but only when a test is made. Plainly the court is thus in a position to do heavy damage to the enacted program of a particular Congress or president. The Supreme Court's smashing blows against the late President Roosevelt's New Deal measures in the mid-thirties provide a perfect example. Was this carrying "checks and balances" too far? Mr. Roosevelt thought so. He launched his famous fight to "pack" the high court by adding six extra members who presumably would have been sympathetic to his proposals. He lost that battle but won the war when death and resignation of sitting justices enabled him to appoint men of his own choosing. The court promptly reversed its stand on the critical issues. Many careful thinkers believed Mr. Roosevelt was basically right in his outlook toward the court, even though they may not necessarily have approved his "packing" plan. Some quoted famed Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes, who said: "The Supreme Court must follow the election returns."

But isn't there a danger that a court which follows the election results too closely may so completely take on the color of the party in power that it yields its independence? Both Mr. Roosevelt and President Truman have elevated certain men to the Supreme Court whose chief qualification seems to have been that they were loyal Democrats. Republican presidents undoubtedly have done the same thing. Ordinarily the long tenure enjoyed by high court justices carries them through changes in national administration. Hence it is unlikely that any party would often get a chance to make over the court in its own image. But the 16-year hold on the White House represented by the Roosevelt-Truman regime provided such an opportunity. That the court does not wholly reflect their views arises from two facts: Some of the appointees did not turn out as expected and one or two were selected deliberately for their opposing concepts of government. There is no harder question than how to strike a balance between a court which might block vital social progress and one which would weakly serve as a rubber stamp for a ruling political party. But it seems to us that the sound course lies somewhere in this direction: A president, whatever his own social philosophy, should strive to construct a Supreme Court that generally represents a balance between conservative and liberal thinking. In order that these two groups shall not stalemate each other, he should seek to place on the bench one justice whose thinking falls near the center. This man—ideally the chief justice—should hold the balance of power on the court. He would be a key figure, alert to the needs of progress and yet jealous of the tribunal's important role as a check upon rash and arbitrary action by other arms of government. He would throw his weight where it would count most for sound but careful advances in human welfare.

Wed At Navy Chapel

Mr. and Mrs. Gene H. Meadows

Ensign Helen Louise Gunther, daughter of Mrs. Eula Gunther of Springfield, formerly of this city became the bride of Gene H. Meadows of Phoenix, Ariz., in a ceremony which was performed in the United States Navy Hospital Chapel at Great Lakes. Using the double-ring service, before an altar banked with flowers, Chaplain Clement read the vows.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her uncle, Darrell Berline of Jacksonville, wore a formal wedding gown of white slipper satin, made with long tight sleeves, fitted bodice and a sweetheart neckline, with a full bouffant skirt and train. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls. Her finger-tip veil of illusion net was bordered with lace and attached to a coronet of seed pearls and her fingerless gloves were white lace. She carried a small white flower Bible on which white rose buds and a shower of Stephanotis with long satin streamers were arranged.

The maid of honor, Miss Charlotte Schreiner, wore a white marquisette gown with fitted bodice and full skirt, and carried an arm arrangement of red roses. Dr. Robert Lemon was best man.

THE DOCTOR SAYS

Common Headache Can Be Symptom Of Serious Type

By Edwin P. Jordan, M.D.
Written for NEA Service

Perhaps more people suffer from headaches than any other common ailment. Although it is true a headache can be a symptom of some serious disease, more often it is merely a minor though unpleasant ailment which does not last long and from which recovery is complete.

A fairly common type of headache which has not been recognized for very long appears to arise from a relaxation of the blood vessels in or near the brain. In this type of headache the treatment consists of giving some fluid which causes the blood vessels to contract. Indeed, there have been reports of rapid relief from this kind of headache merely by injecting adrenalin into one of the veins. Also favorable reports have been made on the injection into the veins of a substance called sodium nicotinate (not related to the nicotine in tobacco). The underlying cause of this type of headache is difficult to treat and the cause practically unknown, but increasing the fluids, giving special diets, and reducing the amount of salt taken into the body seem to bring about favorable results in some cases.

Preventing Migraine

One of the most important kinds of headache is known as migraine. As a rule this type of headache is located on one side only. Before it starts the sufferer often has peculiar sensations. In migraine, drugs given just before an attack may stop the condition from full development.

Any severe or frequently recurring headache should not be ignored. When possible the cause should be identified. After this is done the symptoms should be relieved if possible by simple pain-killing drugs like aspirin. The further management of headaches depends on knowing what caused them and taking the appropriate steps to attack the source of the difficulty whenever possible.

Note: Dr. Jordan is unable to answer individual questions from readers. However, each day he will answer one of the most frequently asked questions in his column.

Health Chairmen Of P.T.A. Groups Hold Meeting

A meeting of the health chairmen from the four local Parent-Teachers associations was held at the Public Library for the purpose of discussing the findings of the health examinations given in each of the schools last spring.

At that time, only about 50 of the 333 children, both preschool and fourth grade students, were eligible for health certificates. The number has risen to 134 as the result of remedial work carried on during the summer.

The awards will be presented at special assemblies to be held at the schools during the next two months. It was announced that loans without interest are available to the Student Health fund for parents whose children are still in need of remedial treatment. Application forms for these loans have been distributed to all of the schools. EVEN-FLOW HEAT AT ALL TIMES

Sensational TRIMATIC CONTROL

★ One dial controls all THREE important points of operating an oil heater. (1) the flow of oil to burner. (2) the draft to provide better combustion. (3) the circulation of heated air. All with ONE dial—turn it up for more heat—turn it down for less heat, as simple as that.

Big, powerful heating drum with Double Baffle—only MONOGRAM has a Double Baffle which stops rush of heat out chimney—creates a lower heat zone—produces warmer area around heater. Big Vairified Air Impeller drives heat to all corners of home.

MONOGRAM Patented "Vaporizing" Burner developed and used exclusively by MONOGRAM is really something special—not like ordinary pot type burners—it turns oil into gas, quickly, completely, then mixes this gas with BOTH primary and secondary air, just like a gas burner, producing a clean, efficient, dependable, trouble-free heat.

● This dial controls (1) flow of oil, (2) draft, and (3) circulation.

● The "Control" dial keeps burner at steady flow of oil to burner—equipped with safety device.

Someone to Love

By IRENE LONNEN ERNHART Copyright, 1949, NEA SERVICE, INC.

THE STORY: Tod Duncan married Jenny after he was jilted by Liz Conover. Tod's intractable family and financial difficulties contrive to keep them unhappy. Jenny becomes the mother of twin boys, Dale and Philip. Tod was away the night the twins arrived, but an old friend Rick Morris appeared at their trailer home in time to get Jenny to a hospital. After Tod's graduation the housing and job problem arises. Rick invites the Duncans to his home in Centerville for a couple of weeks while Tod seeks a new home and a new job. Later Tod asks Jenny, "Rick's in love with you, isn't he?"

Jenny stared at Tod for a long moment. "Rick in love with me?" she said incredulously. "You ought to be ashamed to say that. Just because he had the kindness to want to get the babies out of this heart—" "It's not the babies he's thinking about!" Tod's voice shook. "Don't think I haven't noticed all winter the way he looks at you with those big cow eyes of his. You've had him here for so many meals we ought to charge him board."

"You asked him here. And he's been a real friend to both of us." "Yeah, he's quite a boy." Anger flashed through Jenny. "He was here when I needed him, and you weren't. No telling what might have happened if he hadn't come around that night I went to the hospital!" "I've explained about that night a dozen times, and apologized," Tod went on. "Ma needed me, and I didn't know you'd have to go to the hospital. I've said I was sorry. What do you want me to do—crawl on my hands and knees the rest of my life?" "You don't have to shout so everyone can hear you!" He lowered his voice, but it remained savage in tone. He stood up, his hands on the desk, his face still white with anger, his broad shoulders hunched. "Don't think seemed unnatural that she didn't even want to see her grandchildren.

He wished Ma could at least have come to the graduation. If it hadn't been for her, in spite of the football scholarship those first three years, he wouldn't have gotten to go to college. The way she'd skimped and saved to send him money when he was in the State University! She'd done without things herself and robbed Harriet and Joe to send him those checks. And when the fraternity had a week-end party for their mothers one year he'd been ashamed to ask Ma to come.

Rick's mother came around after the graduation ceremony to second Rick's invitation to Centerville. She was a small woman, smart looking with an upswipe hairdo, silver grey and expensively attractive clothes.

THEY all rode down to Centerville in Rick's car later that day, loaded down with all the incredible paraphernalia needed for two babies—bottles, diapers, suits—cases of clothes, bassinets and the folding carriage.

The Morris home was a beautiful old remodeled colonial house that had been in Rick's family for two generations. Across the way, what had once been Morris home—stead acres was now a public park. They had a picnic supper there that evening. Mamie, the Morris housekeeper, looked after the twins. It was delightful for Jenny.

The two weeks at Centerville passed in no time. Mamie and Mrs. Morris had practically taken over care of the twins, so that Jenny could go swimming with Rick and Tod and even dancing one evening. Jenny dreaded to go back to the trailer camp. And when Rick's mother found out that that was what they intended to do she wouldn't listen to it.

"You'll be better off in our little guest cottage!" she cried. "It's just two rooms, but we can fix it up, and you can live in it until Tod finds an apartment or house in Capitol City."

Jenny accepted with happiness only partially dimmed when Tod acted sullen about it.

Irish Outclass Purdue 35-12 As Michigan Falls To Army 21-7

Lafayette, Ind., Oct. 8.—(AP)—Notre Dame ran up a five-touchdown lead over Purdue's football team Saturday and broke the Elastic Western Conference club, 35-12.

It was practically the same Purdue team that held Notre Dame to a one-point victory last year, but its two-touchdown rally in the final period was only a gallant gesture.

Notre Dame's wealth of fleet backs and its superior blocking had the game in full control after an early Purdue drive died on the Irish 7-yard mark.

Emil Sitko, Notre Dame's stubby fullback, ran over the first three Irish touchdowns.

Notre Dame's lineup was sprinkled liberally with reserves in the final quarter when Purdue cut its losing margin from five touchdowns to three.

An all-time record crowd of 52,000 for enlarged Ross-Ade stadium saw long runs galore—and practically no passing. Notre Dame's Bob Williams tried only four passes and completed but one. Purdue backs took to the air 11 times, completed two passes and had four intercepted.

A couple of the prettier dashes set up Purdue's two late touchdowns. Quarterback Bob Hartman passed to Mike Maccioli in the flat and the sophomore sprinter traveled 59 yards before he was knocked out of bounds on the Irish 4. Big John Kerestes scored three plays later.

Bill Skowron set up Harry Szulborski's touchdown with a 61 yard dash that was pure desperation. Williams had punted out of bounds on the Purdue 2. Skowron dropped back to punt, couldn't run in—Szulborski went 14 yards for the game's final tally.

Sophomore Tackle Bob Tonniff, who stuck out in Notre Dame's defense, ended a third quarter Purdue drive by falling on a fumble.

He made a big part of the Irish lachies when he was in the game.

Bill Gay scored Notre Dame's fourth touchdown, running a pass interception 61 yards. Bill Barrett got the last one on a six yard plunge.

Big Upset Of Year

Ann Arbor, Mich., Oct. 8.—(AP)—A beautifully-poled army team snapped mighty Michigan's 25-game winning streak Saturday as it whipped the Wolverines 21-7 in one of the big upsets of the year.

Ohio State And Trojans Tie 13-13

Los Angeles, Oct. 8.—(AP)—Ohio State and the Trojans of Southern California, stout representatives of the Big Ten and Pacific Coast conferences, fought each other to a 13-13 tie today as 62,877 fans sat glued to the benches until the final gun.

The rugged Buckeyes scored twice on brilliantly executed plays and the crippled Trojans capitalized on one buckeye fumble on the five yard line and earned their second tally in a game that was rugged from start to finish.

Ohio State scored in the first five minutes and kicked the extra point. USC scored just as the period ended but missed its try for the tying digit.

Fullback Fred Morrison of the Buckeyes cut loose with a 57-yard touchdown run in the third to put his mates in front, but the Trojans matched the score and knotted the count with a 63-yard march. This time the Bucks missed their try and USC made good.

Oklahoma A. & M. Falls To MU 21-7

Columbia, Mo., Oct. 8.—(AP)—The University of Missouri struck back savagely with a pair of third period touchdowns to defeat Oklahoma A. & M. 21-7 here Saturday.

Trailing after the opening period and gaining a deadlock by halftime, Missouri hit two quick payoffs for its first victory in three starts. For Oklahoma A. & M. it was the first loss of the season after tying Texas Christian and rolling over Denver 43-2 last week.

Missouri drove out of a corner to unknot the score when John Grabko punted dead on the Missouri 3. Missouri scored in three plays, with Dick Brazzell passing 34 yards to Halfback John Glorioso for the counter. Brazzell came back moments later to cap a 44-yard drive by stepping over from the two. Deneke and Glorioso added the points after touchdown.

Quarterback Jack Hartman's aerials moved Oklahoma A. & M. 22 yards on the cowboy 77 yard touchdown drive in the first period, and were the chief threat to the Missourians thereafter.

Michigan State Takes Maryland

East Lansing, Mich., Oct. 8.—(AP)—Michigan State found its passing attack in the third period to score two touchdowns for a 14-7 win over a great defensive Maryland team here Saturday.

Maryland scored on a Michigan State fumble in the first four minutes of the game and managed to hold the MSC attack off until quarterback Gene Glick started hitting his receivers after the half time.

The Saginaw, Mich., senior completed three short ones in a row to get the MSC offensive rolling. Then, from the one-yard line, Frank Waters threw himself over to put Michigan State back in the game.

A Maryland fumble set up the second MSC score. Stan Lavine let go of the ball and end Red Gilman grabbed it for Michigan State on the Maryland 34.

Northern Defeats Michigan Normal

DeKalb, Ill., Oct. 8.—(AP)—Northern Illinois State defeated Michigan Normal 39-14 Saturday before a homecoming football crowd of 7,000.

After spotting Northern a 7-0 lead, Dale Alderson scored twice in the second period to drive Normal ahead 14-7.

A 74-yard touchdown dash by Ernie Weststrom then touched off a Northern scoring spree as the Huskies gained their third straight win of the season.

Floyd Hunsberger led the winners with three touchdowns.

J. GROTH, ROOKIE DETROIT TIGER, WEDS

Chicago, Oct. 8.—(AP)—Johnny Groth, who just completed a successful rookie year as center fielder for the Detroit Tigers, took a bride today.

She was Betty Stoll, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Stoll of Suburb Northbrook. The ceremony was in St. Patrick's church, West Lake Forest. Six hundred guests dropped in to the Glenview club for breakfast and the reception.

The baseball player and his wife plan to live in an apartment in suburban Evanston after a honeymoon at Sea Island, Ga.

PRINCIPIA WINS OVER MCKENDREE 12 TO 6

Lebanon, Ill., Oct. 8.—(AP)—Norman Rousselot passed to Paul Kilburn in the end zone with three seconds left in the game—and Principia downed McKendree College 12 to 6 Saturday.

The Principia drive started on the Principia 37-yard line and went to the end zone in five passing plays to break the 6-6 tie.

MIDGET RACES AT SPRINGFIELD

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 8.—(AP)—Five racing associations along with several big car drivers headed by the renowned Tony Bettenhausen will be represented in the 100 lap midget championship race to be held at the Springfield Speedway Sunday afternoon. The feature will start at 2:30 p.m.

With the Midwest, St. Louis, Kansas City and Indiana associations scheduled to enter drivers, the one quarter mile dirt track here will be host to the top drivers in the nation.

The all-star lineup also will include many of the Midwest Racing association drivers who have competed regularly here. Harry Turner, Rex Easton, Russ Fox and Lloyd Ruby all have indicated that they will drive.

Rivals Won't Compete

Because of the various association rules which prohibit one group from racing with another association, fans in this area have had no chance to see the rival drivers compete against each other.

Thus the immediate interest in the 100 lap feature is that the competitive skill of the nation's outstanding drivers will go on display for the first time here as a group.

Bettenhausen undoubtedly will be the odds on choice to cop the classic, although such rival AAA drivers as Frank Borany and Mike O'Halloran have given the famous big car driver plenty of opposition in midget circles.

Tony established a world record at the DuQuoin fair this summer as he averaged nearly 100 miles an hour in the big car classic against the best jockeys in the nation. He used a midget motor, incidentally, with a souped up carburetor.

Time Trials At 1 P.M.

Drivers will draw numbers for the order of qualifying trials which will get underway at 1 p.m. With more than 40 cars entered, only the 24 fastest will be selected for the main go. In the event of rain, the race will be held the following Sunday.

It is an accepted fact, incidentally, that particularly the drivers of the Midwest and AAA associations have been feuding for some time.

When for example, a Midwest driver competes in a championship race where the field is predominantly AAA, the former car seldom crosses the finish line. The expected rivalry here Sunday is another co-feature of the 100 lap race.

TCU Takes 13 To 6 Win Over Indiana

Bloomington, Ind., Oct. 8.—(AP)—Opportunity passing and some deceptive running gave Texas Christian University a mud-splattered 13-6 football victory over Indiana's Hoosiers Saturday.

Little Lindy Berry was responsible for a third period pass that broke Indiana's back.

A half-hour long rain soaked the gridiron and an hour before game time and took away much of TCU's aerial threat. The ground was too soggy for the pass receivers to get a good footing, but 20,000 fans waited out the rain to watch the game.

Quarterback Nick Sebek uncorked a jump pass to End Hugh Craton on a play that covered 34 yards for Indiana's only touchdown in the second quarter.

Eastern Edges Normal 7 To 6

Normal, Ill., Oct. 8.—(AP)—Eastern Illinois State opened defense of its Illinois Intercollegiate Athletic Conference football title Saturday by upsetting favored State Normal 7-6.

Eastern tallied near the end of the third quarter after a scoreless first half. Eastern recovered a blocked punt by Frank Chiodo on the Normal one foot line and Jerry Curtis eventually scored. Bill Musselman added the extra point.

In the final two minutes of the game, Normal uncorked a sharp passing attack capped by Chiodo's 12 yard scoring toss to Dick Baldrin. The conversion attempt failed.

Pittsfield Edges Roodhouse 13-12

Roodhouse—Two blocked punts in the second period gave the Pittsfield Saukees a 13-12 victory over the Roodhouse Railroaders here Friday night.

It was an Illinois Valley conference game.

Captain Rich Zimmerman kicked the extra point following one of the Saukee touchdowns to give his club the narrow victory.

Roodhouse scored single touchdowns in the first and fourth periods.

WHEATON SLAUGHTERS ELMHURST 66 TO 0

Wheaton, Ill., Oct. 8.—(AP)—Wheaton College Saturday scored 10 touchdowns and defeated Elmhurst College 66 to 0.

Church Schoenherr, Wheaton fullback, scored two of the touchdowns. Eight other Wheaton men were credited with scoring one each.

WICHITA WHIPS BRADLEY

Wichita, Kas., Oct. 8.—(AP)—Wichita University opened its Missouri Valley conference schedule Saturday with a 21 to 13 victory over stubborn Bradley of Peoria, Ill.

It was the invaders' second defeat in conference play.

North Central Pounds Blueboy Eleven 40-6 In CCI League Tussle

Two bruising, slashing North Central college football teams marched through the Illinois College Blueboys to the beat of a 40-6 cadence on the Jacksonville high school gridiron Saturday afternoon. It was a CCI conference struggle and the first loss the Hilltoppers have sustained in the short season.

It was a case of the old army slogan, "get there first with the mostest" when the two "Little Nine" league rivals clashed before a crowd of approximately 1000 football fans on the sun-drenched turf. North Central coach Bill Olson worked a two-plateau system to perfection and simply wore the Blueboys out by shooting a vast wealth of reserve strength into the ball game.

Two complete teams specialized in offense and defense. Al Miller's undisciplined Illinois College squad, already weakened by injuries, was unable to cope with the refreshed Red bird attack as the game progressed into later stages.

First Quarter Is Scoreless

With Sam Spink and Don Longer—both suffering leg injuries—bolstering the Hilltoppers' forward wall the locals fought a first period scoreless stalemate entirely in North Central territory. The invading Cardinals were unable to get past the fifty yard line with the pigskin.

A ruling rubeard halted the first quarter action for something like 10 minutes while officials and players haggled over a pass interference penalty imposed on North Central defenders.

In waning minutes of the first period both Sam Spink and Don Longer were carried from the gridiron when their leg injuries flared up. Shortly after they left the game, a pass by quarterback Bob Scheller was intercepted by a visiting griddier and things started to happen.

Pass Scores First Touchdown
The Redbirds took over the ball on their own 45 yard line. After trying the Blueboy forward wall with medium success, Quarterback Mike Pope spiraled a 40-yard aerial to Duke Mehn who flagged it down and ran 25 yards to pay dirt. The kick for extra point was blocked and North Central led 6-0.

George Florence, Blueboy guard, was the next to feel the effects of bruising North Central line play. He was sidelined midway through the second quarter and immediately after the passing combination of Pope to Mehn clicked again to score the second visiting touchdown. John Lubjack, who booted four extra points during the afternoon, made it 13-0 as the half ended.

Jacksonville fans expecting the customary second half Blueboy attack were sorely disappointed when the Hilltoppers came back after the intermission obviously tired of mixing with the powerful two-plateauers. Jacksonville backs were unable to break loose for want of adequate blocking and were hit hard by Redbird tacklers. Don Smith, Dave Billings, Bill Gross, and John DeLaPaz were all decommissioned temporarily during second half play.

Pass Combo Works Again
It was the same old passing story that netted the Cardinals their third touchdown. This time the aerial play moved 76 yards from Pope to Mehn for the score. The conversion was good.

Late in the third quarter, North Central changed their tactics and sent Fullback Dan Dubrowski through center to tally from seven yards out. Lubjack's kick made it 17-0.

The visitors maintained their constant two-touchdown pace in the fourth canto when Halfbacks Len Burch and Jim Tarte scored on end runs after successful 40 and 50 yard touchdowns drives. Lubjack's valuable foot gave the Redbirds a big 40-6 edge.

The Blueboys made a gallant but fruitless gesture in the last two minutes of action when they turned a North Central fumble into a touchdown. John DeLaPaz fell on the visitors' bobble on their 15 yard marker. Bill Gross cracked into the center of the line three times to put the ball on North Central's two-yard chalk from where Don Smith rammed over. Bob Scheller's placekick attempt for conversion failed, leaving Illinois college trailing 40-6 at the final gun.

Blueboy Passing Is Nil
The remarkable passing combination of Pope and Mehn was used by the visitors only four times. Three times the aerials went for touchdowns, and the other was good for 20 yards. That the Blueboys' passing attack was way off form is obvious when statistics reveal that Pope and Scheller attempted 14 passes and not one were caught.

Illinois college was completely free from penalties while North Central was set back 35 yards. The Redbirds piled up 13 first downs to the Hilltoppers' nine.

Blueboys Coach Al Miller was forced to scrape the bottom of his barrel of reserves as the injuries piled up. Only regulars Paul Lasley, center, and Bob Grove, quarterback, were not injured.

North Central's Dick Raeker was the only visiting griddier sidelined with a hurt.

Tar Heels Down South Carolina

Columbia, S. C., Oct. 8.—(AP)—All-America Charles Justice and the North Carolina Tar Heels were too much Saturday for the South Carolina Gamecocks and walked off with a 28-13 Southern conference victory before 28,000 fans.

Justice himself didn't score, but his running, passing and kicking left little to be desired.

His deadly accurate passes to Left End Art Weiner led to the first three North Carolina touchdowns.

Weiner's pass receiving was sensational. He caught eight passes from Justice and Billy Hayes for 118 yards and barely missed several others.

UCLA Wins 14-7 Over Stanford
Palo Alto, Calif., Oct. 8.—(AP)—Fleet-footed Ernie Johnson paced the University of California at Los Angeles to a 14 to 7 victory Saturday over a Stanford football team that aided in its own defeat by fumbles and costly mistakes.

A crowd of 40,000 saw the Pacific Northwest's winning scores posted in the first half and final periods. Stanford fumbled a punt in the opening quarter. An alert Bruin left End Bob Wilkinson, was there to fall on it, 12 yards from the Indians' goal. Left Half Johnson circled left end for the score.

Two scoreless quarters followed, with Stanford on the offense but losing the ball three times while on goalward marches.

Dallas, Oct. 8.—(AP)—Oklahoma gouged out a 20-14 victory over Texas Saturday in a rough forty-fourth renewal of this intercollegiate football game before 75,347 fans.

Gouged is right because the massive Sooner team the Texas line as wide open as the Lone Star prairie. Leon Heath, Gene Thomas and Darrell Royal scooted through for great chunks of yardage.

Texas scored to open the second period. The Longhorns got a drive under way that carried 52 yards for the payoff. Randall Clay made it.

Illinois Upsets Iowa 20-14 As Gophers Down Wildcats 21-7

Iowa City, Ia., Oct. 8.—(AP)—Underdog Illinois, led by sophomore speedster Johnny Karras, shocked Iowa 20-14 Saturday in a Big Ten conference football game.

The Illinois, twice tied in previous contests, thoroughly dominated a disappointing Iowa team.

Sophomore Karras, once a state champion interscholastic 440-yard dash man, was the big gun in the Illinois attack. The 21-year-old Johnny romped to 175 of Illinois' 393 net yards by rushing.

The sophomore star opened the scoring with a 35-yard dash early in the second period and pulled the Illinois into a 13-7 lead with a 63-yard run in the third quarter. He wasn't even touched on his second touchdown sprint.

That sparkler broke a 7-7 tie Iowa had gained after recovering an Illinois fumble on the kickoff play following the game's first touchdown.

The Hawks took the ball on the Illinois 28. After a five-yard Illinois penalty, Glen Drahn passed to Don Penick for 20 yards. The latter punched over on the next play and Bill Reichardt tied the count with his placekick.

Illinois shot into a commanding 20-7 advantage in the fourth quarter on a plunge by Sam Piazza and Lou Levantis extra point.

Desperate Iowa got a break when a long pass was ruled complete on the 13 because of interference. Drahn hurried to Jack Dittmer in the end zone on the next play and Reichardt made it 14-20.

Iowa had the ball once more before game's end but four passes were wild.

Bits Of Football
Kansas, 21; George Washington, 14.
Lawrence, Kans., Oct. 8.—(AP)—The University of Kansas broke into the victory column here Saturday for the first time this season, defeating George Washington University 21 to 14 in a hard-fought intercollegiate football game.

The Kansas Jayhawks picked up a 14 to 7 halftime lead. Saw the score evened by George Washington in a third quarter rally, then went on to win in the final period with a persistent aerial attack sparked by Dick Gilman and Jerry Bogue.

WIN BIG 10 OPENER
Minneapolis, Oct. 8.—(AP)—Minnesota throttled Northwestern's attack for three periods and took a 21 to 7 decision in the first test of the Gophers' 1949 football team against Big Ten opposition.

The Gophers' defense proved too much for the Wildcats. It wasn't until midway in the final period that Northwestern could score. An intercepted pass gave them the ball in the middle and they combined short passes over the line with enough running plays to work the ball to the Gopher one-yard line.

Right Half Rich Athan made the tally after fumbling and picking up the ball on the run. Guard Eddie Nemeth added the point.

Minnesota uncovered an unheralded potential star. Sophomore Dick Gregory scored two Gopher touchdowns and contributed some very pretty broken field running for important gains.

Gregory came into the game after Left Half Bill Bye was injured early in the second period, and from then on he was a headache for Northwestern. Bye suffered a groin injury.

One of Gregory's twisting runs was good for 23 yards and a touchdown in the third period. The same type of elusive running played a big part in Gregory's second-period score. In all, Gregory contributed 48 yards, including his five-yard touchdown plunge, to the Gopher drive that started on the Minnesota 34 yard line.

Nebraska, 13; Kansas State, 6
Manhattan, Kans., Oct. 8.—(AP)—Sophomore halfback Ronald Clark wheeled back to the opening kick off 100 yards as the Nebraska cornhuskers crammed two touchdowns in two electrifying plays to defeat Kansas State's Wildcats 13-6 in a Big Seven conference football game today.

The kickoff was straight down the middle. Clark took it on the goal line and streaked up field to the 50, swung to the right and scored with a Kansas Stater offering a tackle.

Cornell, 33; Harvard, 14
Cambridge, Mass., Oct. 8.—(AP)—Cornell's faster and better-manned forces forced to their third football win by trouncing Harvard, 33-14, today before a crowd of 24,000 at the stadium.

Georgia Tech 36 Washington & Lee 0
Atlanta, Oct. 8.—(AP)—Jimmy Jordan turned a peaceful Washington and Lee-Georgia Tech football game into a flashing, flank attack today as Tech's light legion won, 36-0.

Except for the moments when the 145-pound Jordan was sweeping the flanks of the Virginia generals, the game was flat and filled with fumbles.

Johnny Jorgensen, who knocked a double off Allie in Wednesday's classic, was sent in to pinch-hit when Reynolds replaced Lopat today and went down looking at a called third strike.

More runs were scored by the two clubs today than they had amassed in all the previous three contests. The Yanks, in ganging up on Don Newcombe, Brooklyn's big negro fireballer, for three doubles and knocking him from the premises in the fourth inning, tied a series record. No club ever has bashed more two-baggers in one frame.

Newcombe, who was pitching with only two days' rest after his brilliant but losing effort on Wednesday, didn't have what it took to halt the Yankees today. The first two men to face him hit safely, and he sweated through a bad 20 minutes before he retired the side.

The walls fell in on him in the fourth when Bobby Brown, the day's slugger, pounded a double into left, Gene Woodling drew a walk on four pitches and Cliff Mages delivered his first hit of the series, a bruising double into the left field corner that counted, both Yanks.

Manager Burt Shotton didn't balk at Don at that point. He let him pitch to Jerry Coleman, and the latter fouled out, but then Lopat, in 3 1/3 innings, Hatten 3 and 3 in himself, poled the clincher against Reynolds 1 and 0 in 3; Lopat 4 and 4 in 5 2/3; against the left center fielder. Reynolds 0 and 0 in 3 1/3. Winner—Lopat. Loser—Newcombe. (AL) first base: Reardon (AL) second base: Passarella (AL) third base: Hurley but Lopat tried to score from second (AL) left field foul line; Barr (NL) and was an easy out on Luis Olmo's rightfield foul line. A—33,934 (paid). throw to Catcher Roy Campanella. T—2:42. Receipts—$167,906.37.

Quincy 40, Culver Stockton 0
Quincy, Ill., Oct. 8.—(AP)—Quincy College trounced Culver Stockton 40-0 in a football game tonight to win the Mississippi Bell, symbolic of the rivalry.

Six different players scored for Quincy. Four other touchdowns were called back by penalties. Bob Brunette's passing was the feature. He lateraled to Chuck Schoendienst who in turn lateraled to Lou Storto in a 40-yard touchdown maneuver.

Indiana State 9, Ill. Normal 7
Terre Haute, Ind., Oct. 8.—(AP)—A pass from the Illinois Normal center which cleared the end zone for a safety gave Indiana State a 9-7 victory over Illinois Normal tonight.

State was leading 7-0 in the second period and held Normal against its own goal line. Vanderplum dropped back to punt, but Center Ledbetter passed the ball over his head and it rolled out of the end zone without being touched.

Lake Forest 19, Carthage 6
Carthage, Ill., Oct. 8.—(AP)—Jack McCormick scored all Lake Forest's points as his team defeated Carthage 19-6 in a Little Nine conference football game tonight.

Carthage took a 6-0 halftime lead when Bob Hardy dashed 30 yards in the first quarter.

Yanks Slap Newcombe, Hatten For Ten Hits To Take 3-1 Series Edge

Brooklyn, Oct. 8.—(AP)—The "pitchingest" world series of modern times came unstuck today as the New York Yankees smashed out 10 hits—four of them ringing extra-basers—to subdue the Dodgers, 6 to 4, and pull within a single victory of the winners' share.

In two big innings, the fourth and fifth, the American league champions blasted two Brooklyn pitchers for all their runs on two singles, three doubles and a three-run triple by the "golden boy," Bobby Brown.

Then, after the home team had rallied with seven singles in an amazing sixth chapter to rout starter Ed Lopat and reduce their deficit to two runs, the Yankees sat back behind remarkable relief pitching by Allie Reynolds to clinch their 3-1 lead in the play-off.

That brought up the ailing Joe DiMaggio, who had made only one sacrifice in 12 previous official times up, and the Brooklyn board of strategy decided to put him on base in order to get to Brown. It seemed a sound idea, as Bobby is a lefty batter and Hatten a southpaw thrower.

But it turned out that the young Tulane university medical student wasn't through for the day. He slashed a clean drive down the right field line which hit and climbed the high wall and then, upon falling back, did its best to elude the frantically grasping Hermanski.

By the time Gene got the pellet back in play, three Yankee runners were across and Brown was sitting triumphantly on third. That was all. Hatten finally retired the next three batters, and his successors, Carl Erskine and Jack Banta, kept the Bombers in check for the rest of the way. But it proved to have been enough probably to wreck the Dodgers' hopes of their first world's championship.

From the time he took over from Lopat with the tying run on base and two out in the sixth until he struck out the final two Dodgers to wind up the game, Reynolds did not permit another Brooklyn runner to reach first. The 10 men he faced went down as though they had been pole-axed.

Thus the sturdy right-hander from Oklahoma had in 12 1-3 innings of world series pitching, including his brilliant 1 to 0 victory in the opener at Yankee Stadium, surrendered just two harmless hits to the National leaguers.

Johnny Jorgensen, who knocked a double off Allie in Wednesday's classic, was sent in to pinch-hit when Reynolds replaced Lopat today and went down looking at a called third strike.

Influence Of Women Freed Of Tradition Called Orient's Hope

Women Leaders in the Orient" was the topic of the address given by Louise Gates Eddy, wife of Dr. Sherwood Eddy, noted author, lecturer and world traveler, Saturday afternoon at the annual October luncheon, opening event of the season for Jacksonville Woman's club.

Mrs. Eddy, who with her globe-trotting husband, has traveled extensively through all parts of the world, delved into her experiences for the basis of her talk.

In her opening remarks, she presented a word-picture of conditions in the Far East today, emphasizing the poverty, hunger, disease and overcrowding which have made thousands homeless.

"There is poverty in Asia," declared Mrs. Eddy, "such as we in this rich land of ours have no comprehension of." Conditions are such that the life expectancy in India is only 24 years; in China, close to 30 years, as compared with 67 years in America.

However, changes will come to pass in the never-changing Orient, according to Mrs. Eddy, who cited the first step as being the realization on the part of the leaders of responsibility for the poor and oppressed of their nations.

Mrs. Eddy recounted her interview with the emperor and empress of Japan, at which the emperor appeared in tweeds and the empress in the traditional kimono.

She referred to Japan's new constitution which among other things states that Japan will never again wage an aggressive war. It grants equal marital rights and responsibilities to men and women and gives women the right to vote.

As a result of this latter measure, said Mrs. Eddy, the women of Japan have found themselves totally unprepared to accept the privilege which is now theirs. For centuries, they have lived a quiet, simple existence, having no need to think for themselves. Now they are expected to vote intelligently and have a working knowledge of governmental functions.

Mrs. Eddy lauded the manner in which they have risen to meet this challenge. She stressed the fact that although many of Asia's people are illiterate, the Japanese, on the whole, are rather well educated.

"Beautiful, but bitter" is the term she used in describing Madame Chiang Kai-chek, whom she said has suffered such tremendous disappointments over the plight of her country.

The people of China, stated Mrs. Eddy, feel that Chiang and his wife care more for themselves than for their country. They feel that conditions can be no worse and that perhaps communism is the answer to their troubles.

Mrs. Eddy next told of Sarojini Naidu, the great Indian poet and patriot, who became a staunch follower of Mahatma Gandhi. Another great Indian woman of whom Mrs. Eddy spoke was Rajkumari Armit Kaur, a leader in the Congress party and minister of health for India.

She also spoke of the best known woman in India, Vajra Lakshmi Pandit, who was the first woman to head a delegation to the United Nations and who is now ambassador to the United States.

In concluding her talk, Mrs. Eddy spoke of the wonderful situation which would prevail if the women of the Orient could learn the many skills which women in the United States have mastered and if in turn, American women could learn unselfish service for humanity and develop a sense of serenity common to the women of India.

The speaker was introduced by Mrs. W. G. Goebel, chairman of the day. Mrs. G. O. Webster, music chairman introduced Mrs. S. G. Baker, contralto, and Miss Mahala McGee, pianist, who furnished entertainment. The program was arranged by Miss Charlotte Sieber.

Arrangements for the luncheon, which was attended by 170 members, were made by Mrs. J. D. Bunting. Mrs. John Marshall and Mrs. R. H. Harper had charge of the tickets. Invocation was offered by Mrs. C. L. Rice and the pledge to the flag was led by Mrs. Floyd Hess, first vice president. The lovely floral arrangement at the speaker's table was done by Mrs. R. C. Henley of Concord.

The business session was conducted by the president, Mrs. C. R. Hart.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Neil P. Sorrell who passed away one year ago Oct. 10th.

Softly the stars are shining upon a precious grave, Beneath lies the one we loved, but whom we could not save. Friends may think we have forgotten, when at times they see us smile.

Little do they know the heartaches, that our smile hides all the while. We mourn for him in silence, no eyes can see us weep. But many silent tears are shed, while others are asleep. Sadly missed by Wife and Family.

Early Illinois Speech Reviewed By Sandburg

Carl Sandburg, American poet and the nation's foremost Lincoln historian, addressed 300 members of the Illinois State Historical society at New Salem park Saturday. His informal discussion on a little-known speech made by Lincoln, probably during the 1858 U. S. Senate campaign, featured the society's pilgrimage to the scene of Abraham Lincoln's life as a young man.

The pilgrimage climaxed the 50th anniversary meeting of the society. The celebration closed last night when former Congressman Everett Dirksen of Pekin spoke at a dinner meeting held at the Abraham Lincoln hotel, Springfield.

Earlier the group inspected the restored village, with Mrs. Fern Nance Pond of Petersburg as guide.

Local Men Elected

Clarence P. McClelland, president of MacMurray College, was elected director of the organization and Frank J. Heintz of Jacksonville was named one of the society's eight vice presidents.

Sandburg read passages from a recently discovered speech that Lincoln made while campaigning for the U. S. Senate in 1858. He called it the "best interpretation" ever written of the Declaration of Independence.

The speech, found reprinted in an October, 1860, issue of the Rail Splitter, a campaign publication of that year, called the independence declaration an "immortal emblem of humanity."

Attracted Little Attention

Sandburg theorized that the speech went all but unnoticed when Lincoln delivered it. There is no record of when or where it was given, he said.

The poet-historian said that few public figures contemporary with Lincoln "truly understood what he was saying."

Sandburg sprinkled anecdotes about the civil war president's early years through his informal remarks.

Scorial Thompson was elected president as the society opened its golden anniversary celebration Friday.

Other officers elected at the start of the two-day meeting are O. F. Ander, Rock Island, Senior vice president; and George C. Dixon, Dixon; Vernon L. Nickell, Springfield; C. C. Tisler, Ottawa; Frank J. Heintz, Jacksonville; Herman D. Smith, Lake Forest, and Harry L. Meyer, Alton, all vice presidents.

The group's new directors are David V. Felts, Decatur; Elmer Abrahamson, Chicago; Clarence P. McClelland, Jacksonville; Philip Keister, Freeport, and Ralph Hinchcliffe, Rockford.

Gov. Stevenson, addressing a luncheon opening the affair, pledged
